AT HOME NEWS

German View of It. The Kaiser's own are grating. When the Shamrock used to grow, how long they'll pasture on the green there's no one sure to know.

But if we judge the future. By what's happened don't you know. There'll be no grass for Pat's jackass. Where the Shamrock used to grow.

Oh Johnny Bull, oh Johnny Bull. What are you going to do? You said that you would whip the Dutch. And now it's up to you.

But unless you get a hustle on. There's one thing you should know. They'll be raising plants for sauer kraut. Where the Shamrock used to grow.

Where the Shamrock used to grow. Bill Dooley.

The ladies of the G. A. R., will give a parcel post sale tomorrow evening. The city payroll for the month of December was allowed today by the city commission.

The ministerial association met this morning at 10 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

The supply of rags and towels at the Public Health Nursing association is getting low, according to Miss Edith Lacy, in charge. She has asked that people with old cloths which they do not need give them to the nursing association.

The Silver Link circle will meet this evening at the Y. W. C. A. While they prepare their gifts for their "family" whom they intend to treat, Miss Clara Armstrong will tell Christmas stories, Miss Florence Warner and Miss Daisy Neil will lead.

Long, high sounding names are to be hitched to the automobiles which will be given out next January by the Topeka high school. Principal A. J. Stout has sent out a call already for seniors to hand in what they want to be called on their sheepskins.

The city commission today approved Mayor J. E. House's action in allowing Joseph Hamilton, fire marshal, to purchase a new automobile for his own use. The car in use at present will be used by the assistant chief while the double platform system goes into effect the first of the year.

George W. Metzger, who shot three white quails while hunting at Winthrop, Mo., in 1889, may have to divide honors with George Stansfield, who claims to have killed a white quail five years ago at Delphos, Kan. If there are any more hunters who have killed white quails, let them come forward and testify.

Miss Laura Fliss was married to Ernest E. Bush of Leavenworth Sunday at 1:30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pratt, 1921 Western avenue. Mr. Bush is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bush who live a few miles south of Topeka. Dr. O.

Cook of the First Christian church officiated, using the ring ceremony. Following the wedding dinner the young couple left for their future home at Leavenworth where Mr. Bush is connected with the Catlin-Knox shoe company.

Leaky gas mains on the east side of Kansas avenue between Seventh and Eighth streets caused the excavations which were made this morning by the repair gang of the Consumers' Light, Heat and Power company. New pipe will be put into every street building on Kansas avenue between Eighth and Sixth streets.

Plays are coming in fast now according to Roy Crawford, manager of the Grand theater, who received booking today for "Kick In" January 2 and the "Little Lost Sister" January 3. With these two shows booked the Grand theater will be open every night for the first two weeks in January, a condition that has not existed in Topeka for years.
